"I had a dream and this is what we made of it," Mary Rapaport said of her self-proclaimed castle in Greenhurst. The home and carriage house she and her husband, Bill, built on Chautauqua Lake in Greenhurst is 10,000+ square feet of the WCA Foundation Home Tour.

Jamestown's housing treasures - past and present - are the focus of this Saturday's four-stop tour which stretches from Lucille Ball's childhood home in Celoron through Jamestown and on to Greenhurst. Each venue has historic value and offers tours of community homes that we pass frequently but may never have seen the less public areas that will be opened to tour visitors.
