Foundation Still Independent ...

Change brings many things to a community or organization. In the case of the total affiliation of WCA Hospital and UPMC many have voiced questions about how the change affects their support of WCA. Can they have the certainty that their donations will stay local and benefit the hospital this community is blessed to have? The simple answer and good news is YES! WCA Foundation will continue to remain a supporting, but independent, fund raising organization that will support the dynamic life-saving work of our local hospital. The only difference is the nearly half million dollars in grants given each year from WCA Foundation will go to the same hospital that's had a name change - UPMC Chautauqua at WCA.

Fluttering Wings Benefit Fund: Angels Among Us Craft Show - September 24

VENDORS WANTED: Are you crafty and looking for a place to sell your craft items? If so, sell your crafts at the Angels Among Us Craft Show on September 24 to benefit the Judy Pollino Memorial Cancer Care Fund at WCA Foundation. The event will be held at First Lutheran Church from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. To secure a table crafters should call Tammy Pollino at 716.499.3272. Tables are $20 plus a donation of a craft item for the Chinese Auction held at the craft show.

Judy Pollino was a victim of ovarian cancer. Her family - the "fluttering wings" who work so hard each year to increase the endowment in the fund created in her memory - formed the Angels Among Us group to hold fund raising events, to publicize the warning signs of ovarian cancer and support the treatment of cancer patients at WCA Cancer Treatment Center.

For more information about the Judy Pollino Memorial Cancer Care Fund or the Angels Among Us Craft Show, contact Brigetta Overcash, Executive Director of WCA Foundation, 716-664-5461, 300 Foote Avenue, P.O. Box 840, Jamestown, NY 14702-0840.
